

Award-Winning Book Report

Honors English One B

Book report guidelines:

For this book report, you are to select a book that has won some kind of award. (Newberry Awards are not acceptable for this report.) You are going to research this award, looking to find what criteria are used to win this award. Next, read the book, then decide if you agree that the book was worthy of the award it has received. If your book has won more than one award, you will only be responsible for researching one of those awards.

Requirements:

- Typed with legible font
- 3-4 paragraph summary of the book (avoid plagiarism; any copying will result in in-house suspension and a zero)
- 1 paragraph summary of the award (include bibliography information)
- 1-2 paragraph in-depth summary of your critique of the book (was it worthy of the award, why or why not?)

Remember, book reports should be in 3rd person!!!

Book reports are due: _____

Avoid plagiarism; any copying will result in in-house suspension and a zero
