

Literary Terms

Across

1. a struggle between two opposing forces
3. feelings that the literature evokes
5. point with the greatest emotional intensity, interest or suspense
8. main idea of a literary work
11. anything invented or imagined
13. object, person or place that has a meaning in itself and stands for something else
14. any prose narrative that tells about something that actually happened
16. a contrast between what is stated and what is really meant, or what is expected to happen doesn't
20. the use of hints or clues in a narrative that suggests what action is yet to come
22. speech patterns of a specific group
23. when ending occurs it is a complete shock
24. people speaking to each other in quotes
25. literary work where characters meet an unhappy ending

Down

2. all action that follows the turning point
4. a story acted out by actors and actresses
6. a scene in a story that interrupts the action to show an event that happened earlier
7. narrative, prose fiction that is shorter than a novel

9. time and place of a narrative
10. the name of a literary work
12. a narrator is this if he is all-knowing
13. general idea that is believed an applied to all people that are similar
15. a character that sets another character off by contrast
17. the sequence of events
18. persons appearing in a short story, novel or play
19. vantage point from which a story is told
21. the author or a character that tells a story